

BACKGROUND OF ORGANISATION

The Ravenshoe Community Centre was established in 1990 by a group of Ravenshoe people who were concerned about local family hardship, the stresses on people in harsh economic times and a lack of appropriate services in the town. Following the declaration of the (1988) Wet Tropics rainforest areas and the cessation of much of the timber logging in the area, many timber workers were made redundant leading to high unemployment and family upheaval. The Millstream Estate land development had opened up cheaper land for those wishing to escape to a rural lifestyle with the promise of jobs on a proposed dam which failed to eventuate.

An early submission for government funding was unsuccessful, but the people involved decided to go ahead with the provision of an information, support, referral and education service on a voluntary basis. The Herberton Shire Council kindly donated the use of a room under the town hall in Ravenshoe, which the volunteer staff painted and furnished with donated materials. A benevolent community member and local councillor (who wished to remain anonymous) donated their meeting fees to financially support administration costs (phone and fax).

A training program was conducted for people interested in working in the centre and it opened for business in November 1990. Commonwealth Government Emergency Relief funding was granted in 1991.

Extensive community use over the next two years demonstrated the need for such a service, and after numerous submissions, in 1993 government funding was granted to the Management Committee to provide a Limited Hours Child Care program in a refitted out building. A successful funding application to the Queensland State Government's Community Neighbourhood Centre grants scheme allowed the Community Centre to consolidate and expand the well-established service. The equivalent of a full time 1.25 position was split into a number of positions - five community support staff, a finance officer, an administration officer and a community development officer whose job it was to seek other funding to meet the growing needs of the community. Ongoing voluntary involvement was crucial and continued to play a significant role in the evolving community centre.

In the following years the Centre received additional funding for Family Support Services, a Youth Program, a Mental Health Service (which is now run by Centacare) and for Rural and Remote Home Care Services and Day Respite.

Following the devastating café explosion in 2015 the Queensland Department of Communities funded a full time counsellor for a period of twelve months. The Centre is currently attempting to have this position extended as a strong need for the continuation of this service has been identified.

Prior to the construction of the Ravenshoe Community Hub in 2004-2005, which now collocates Ravenshoe Community Centre and Yabu Mija Indigenous Corporation, RCC Inc worked out of five separate buildings in various locations within Ravenshoe and Millaa Millaa. Today all of RCC's services, apart from our Limited Hours Childcare program, now funded by the Department of Education Queensland and the Ravenshoe Social Club (Day Respite Program), are located at the Ravenshoe Community Hub.

Following an organisational review, Ravenshoe Community Centre Inc recruited a part-time Centre Coordinator in December 2015. Primary functions of this position are to support the organisation's operational needs and coordinate the quality provision and ongoing development of support services that meet the needs of the community.

ORGANISATIONAL STRUCTURE

Ravenshoe Community Centre is an incorporated, not for profit organisation, registered under the Queensland Associations Incorporations Act 1981. The Constitution lists the objects of the organisation, its legal powers, composition of the management collective, office bearers, conduct of elections and general meetings and membership. Copies of the constitution are held in the community development worker's office and are available to all members and staff of the organisation.

Ravenshoe Community Centre functions as a collective with consensus decision making.

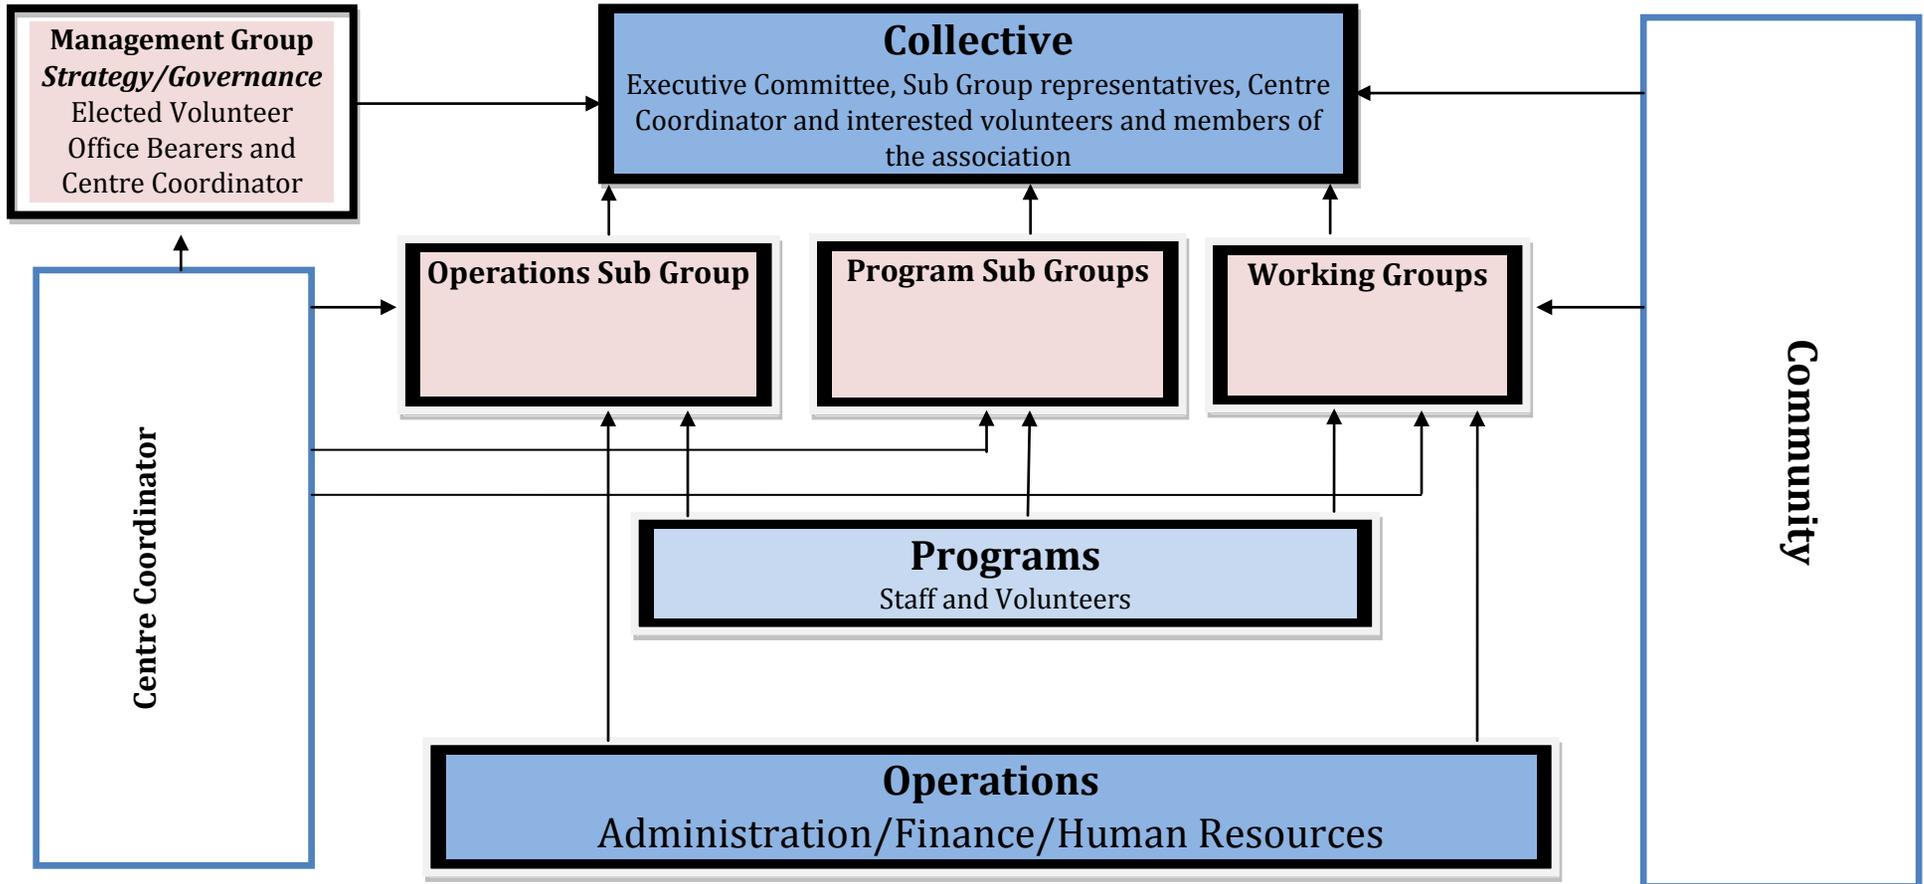

Collectives are organisations that are structured to enhance behaviour based on co-operation, reciprocity, trust and equality. The emphasis is on equal participation by all members of the organisation, sharing of knowledge and skills and consensus decision-making.

The Ravenshoe Community Centre is managed by a Collective of members and elected office bearers:

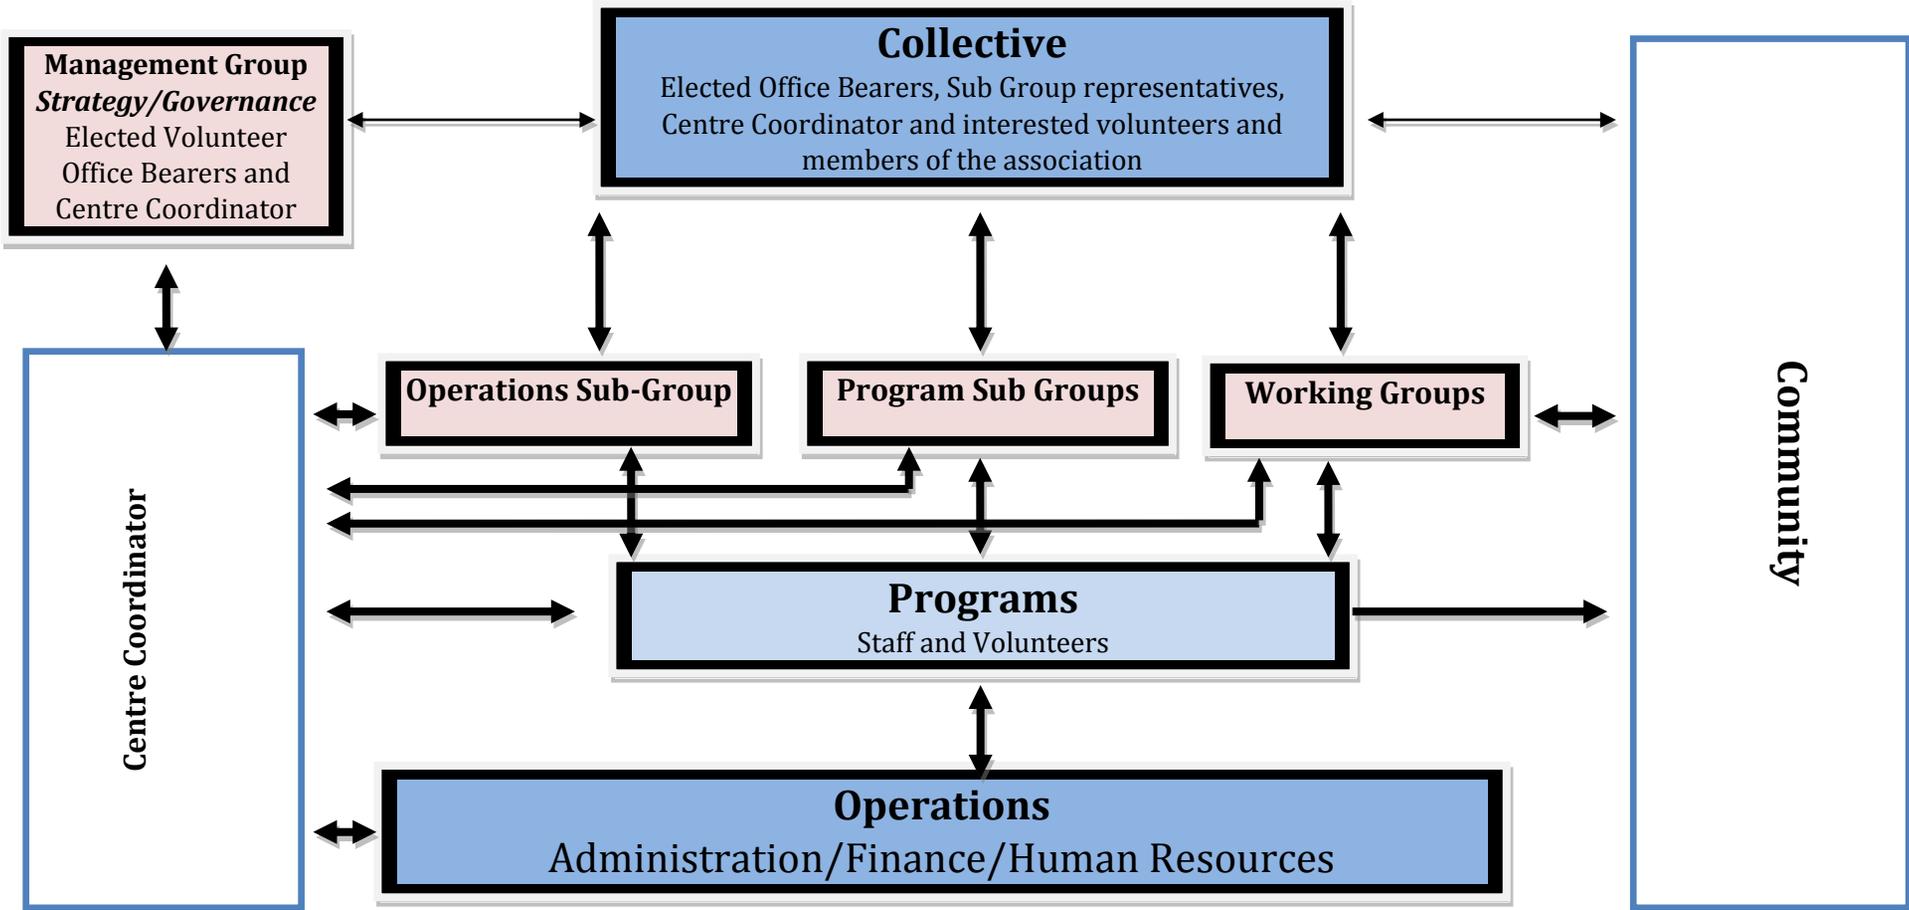

- Chairperson
- Vice Chairperson
- Secretary
- Treasurer

The following diagrams identify the flow of representation, communication and decision making within the organisation.

DECISION MAKING

OUR VISION

A vibrant, empowered community that is resilient and socially inclusive

OUR MISSION

To work in partnership with our community to enhance the quality of life of every one of us with inherent respect and regard for our environment

OUR VALUES

The following values will guide the decisions and actions of Ravenshoe Community Centre

1	Ravenshoe Community Centre is committed to the Principles of Social Justice. We believe that all people should have access to the resources and information necessary for achieving positive change and improving our quality of life. We should all be able to participate in decision making that affects us. We are also committed to the equitable distribution of resources within our organisation, community and broader society.
2	Many within our community experience a range of personal hardships including poverty. We believe that the stressful situations that many find themselves in are symptomatic of broader structural issues over which most of us have no control. This situation does not however remove for each of us the personal responsibility for our individual decisions and actions.
3	We believe that the role of Ravenshoe Community Centre is to facilitate the development of skills and resources necessary within the community to allow the community and individuals within it to respond to their own needs.
4	We believe that people access our services deserve to be treated, listened to, heard and responded to with respect, compassion, empathy, understanding, confidentiality and tolerance regardless of age, ability, gender, race, religion, politics or sexual preference.
5	Ravenshoe Community Centre is committed to operating on collective and consensus principles. We aim to learn from and share with each other and do what is best for all according to the will of all. We believe that community is about people living together, sharing common goals and allowing each of its members to develop a sense of belonging through participation and contribution.

COLLECTIVE PRINCIPLES

RCC's collective approach encompasses the following principles:

- distribution of authority to as many people as possible in order to:
 - prevent monopoly of power
 - offer the opportunity to have responsibility for specific tasks and thus learn different skills
- those with positions of authority are responsible to the Collective, which has the ultimate say
- commitment to RCC as an organization is ensured by delegating tasks to members, volunteers and staff expressing interest

- tasks are allocated to people who feel confident with taking the responsibility and who can assist others to gain skills in a particular area
- sharing information and new ideas with the whole group, because information is power and access to information enhances one's power
- decision making by consensus

TARGET GROUP

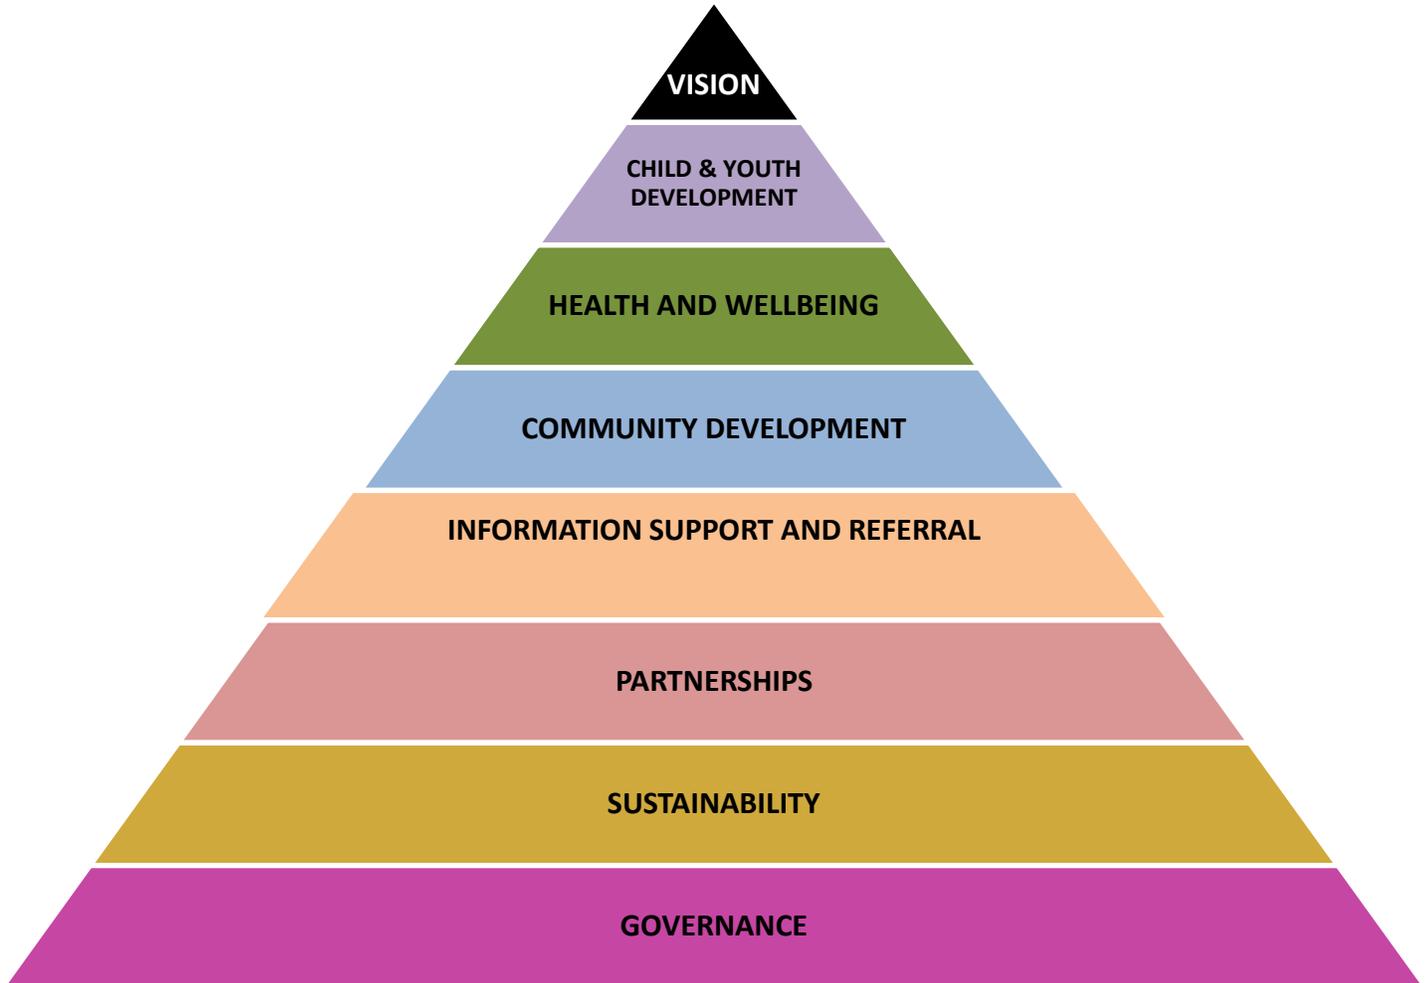

The whole of community with an emphasis on vulnerable and/or disadvantaged people and their support networks, not excluding other individuals expressing needs.

TARGET AREA

Ravenshoe and surrounding districts and remote areas of Far North Queensland where resources are available to address unmet needs.

STRATEGIC DIRECTIONS

This plan has been developed to address the following eight strategic directions considered necessary in achieving our mission.

GOALS

To achieve our mission and address the identified strategic directions Ravenshoe Community Centre has established the following strategic goals.

1	Child and Youth Development Young people and children are supported through a broad range of developmental and educational experiences to reach their individual potential in a safe environment that expands their understanding of the world in which they live
2	Health and Wellbeing Community members of all ages and ability are able to live healthy and independent lives in accordance with their capacity and desired level of autonomy.
3	Community Development A resilient, socially inclusive community where individuals and groups are empowered to effect positive change within their community
4	Information Support and Referral Families and individuals are better able to respond to their current situation and have a greater sense of control over their lives
5	Partnerships Strong partnerships based on mutual cooperation exist with our local community, all levels of government and other community based organisations
6	Sustainability Sustainable social, environmental, cultural and economic development of our community.
7	Governance Community needs are met through an efficient and effective organisation that is managed through open and accountable leadership and a transparent organisational structure

SUMMARY

The purpose of this plan is to provide Ravenshoe Community Centre with a cohesive strategy for the next three years towards achieving our vision of A vibrant, empowered community that is resilient and socially inclusive.

This will be achieved by focusing of the following strategic directions:

- Child and Youth Development
- Health and Wellbeing
- Community Development
- Information, support and referral
- Partnerships
- Sustainability
- Governance

Consistent with RCC's commitment to sustainable development and change there is a strong focus throughout the plan on capacity building and building partnerships with government and other stakeholders.

The plan has been developed in the knowledge that any sustainable development and lasting change needs to be holistic in its approach.

The following summarises some of the key gains that RCC will work towards over the next three years:

- Increased opportunities for parents/caregivers to participate in employment, education and training through the provision of quality Limited Hours Childcare
- 195 young people at risk of disengagement will be provided with information, support and referral services
- Service models for youth housing and alternate education projects will be developed
- Increased service to meet the needs of frail aged people and people with disabilities and their carers in remote locations
- Establishment of a locally based domestic violence service to meet the needs of families impacted by family and domestic violence
- Increased delivery of outreach services to Mt Garnet, Millaa Millaa and Herberton
- School holiday program for parents and their children
- Increased provision of workshops and groups that build individual and community capacity
- Increased client referrals through improved service system relationships
- Sustainability principles are included across all areas of operation
- Delivery of sustainability workshops across target areas
- Development of a Farmer's Market
- Improved governance across all areas of operation

RCC is confident that these achievements will make a significant contribution to lasting change in the lives of individuals living in our communities and the community as a whole.
